Notes: Please read SDS, label and instructions for use with regard to intended use, application and safe handling of the product. As a distributor of products, we are obliged, but of course also interested in our own interest, that our products do not pose any risks to humans or the environment over their entire life cycle. We ensure that when used in accordance with our application instructions and through use and disposal of the object treated with our product under foreseeable conditions no risks for humans or the environment arise from the use of our products.

Our products do not pose a risk to the objects treated with them, because the hazardous substances that led to the labeling of the product evaporate during use, are chemically changed to harmless substances or are so firmly integrated into the matrix of the object that they do not pose a risk.

Declaration on substances used*:

European Aerosols declares the following applies for the product(s) manufactured/imported and the substances used in them*:

- Absence of Substances of Very High Concern (REACH, Regulation 1907/2006/EC) in a concentration exceeding 0,1%.
- Absence of restrictions according to the Restricted Substances List (Annex XVII of REACH).
- Fulfilment of the Restriction of Hazardous Substances directive (Directive 2011/65/ EC).
- Absence of carcinogenic, mutagenic and/or reprotoxic substances of category 1A / 1B and 2 amounts exceeding the applicable concentration limits as mentioned in CLP, Regulation 1272/2008/EC, Annex I, Part 3, Tables 3.5.2 and 3.6.2.

- The mixture does not contain or consist of intentionally added nanomaterials (Regulation 2018/1881/EC).
- The mixture does not contain intentionally added microplastics to our current knowledge and following the current ECHA working definition and information. Since this legislation is evolving this statement may change if deemed necessary.

With best regards,

i.A. Wolfgang Herrmann
